GC Police Clear 33 Burglaries; Coupe Nabbed

Gerald Young, Wife Caught in Burglary In Florissant, Mo.

Granite City police cleared 33 house burglaries following the arrest of a local couple involved in a burglary Saturday night in Florissant, Mo.

Charged with burglary in Florissant were Gerald Ellison Young, 22, of 215 (r) Illinois avenue, and his wife, Frances, 19.

Florissant police said the couple was involved in at least 15 burglaries in that city, while St. Louis county police were questioning them today in connection with 30 to 40 burglaries there. Young also was reported to be a fugitive from the city of St. Louis.

The last Saturday night exceeded $5000 in value. Mrs. Young was apprehended at the scene, while her husband was located in a nearby taxicab.

On Wanted List
Police Chief Ronald Veizer said Young was on the wanted list here since last October. He said local police had been cooperating with Florissant and St. Louis city and county authorities in connection with the series of burglaries.

A number of stolen items was recovered from the Young apartment, Veizer said, and will be returned to the owners in the near future.

Chief Veizer said the couple probably will be held in St. Louis county for prosecution and will not be released here. He added that the investigation is continuing and other local house burglaries may be cleared.

Local victims and dates of the burglaries are:

Program To Develop New Homes Approved

2 Cities To Replace Deteriorated Housing For Old, New Owners

A joint Venice-Madison home development program under which the two communities plan to replace much deteriorated housing with federal help was initiated officially by the Venice city council in a regular meeting Friday night.

The council approved a revised contract with the Daily Planning Associates of St. Louis for engineering, surveys and planning necessary to present an application for federal aid in a Neighborhood Renewal program.

Action on the contract by the Venice council clears the way for approval of a similar contract by the city of Madison, which has been waiting for Venice to complete the renewal program. Total cost of the planning work of the Venice and Madison is estimated at $25,000.

Under the agreement, the St. Louis planners will make all engineering studies, plans and reports necessary to preparation of an application to the Neighborhood Renewal Division of the government's urban renewal program. Total cost of the planning work of the Venice and Madison is estimated at $25,000.

Venice Cost $11,440
The contract approved Friday night for the cost of the Venice share at $11,440, with five payments of $2000 to be made each 90 days. The final payment of $11,440 of the total Venice cost, is to be made upon completion of the study.

Consolidation of plan for planning between Madison and Venice is based on population. The home development program, first considered by Venice and Madison in January 1968, would be conducted under liberalized federal regulations rather than as major-sized projects.

Air Pollution Board Points to Accomplishments, Goals

(First of Two Articles)
Goals and accomplishments of Granite City's Air Pollution Board are outlined in the first annual report made public on Friday.

In pointing out the report's achievement, a three-year period, Henry S. Blinck, board chairman, stressed that Granite City, as part of a heavy industrial area, "cannot expect to have superior quality air."

By the same token, the community must exert a special effort to effectively control all air pollution sources, so that health is not endangered, property values and business suffer, and new industry and residents will not be deterred.

The report shows a marked improvement in the reduction of the level of settleable and suspended particulate matter in the base period during the year 1966 through November 1968.

Briarcliff Development obtained a permit for a four-unit 16-room town house in the Briarcliff subdivision, to cost $30,000 and a permit was issued to Kenneth Tankersley for a brick home at 2431 Waterman avenue at $24,350.

Protest GC Drainage System

A move to block discharge of Granite City's new stormwater sewers into the Nameoki drainage canal until the city and the East Side Levee and Sanitary district work out a method for maintaining a stable and reasonably low level of Horseshoe Lake developed Friday night in a special meeting of the Horseshoe Lake Landowners Association.

At the same time the group announced it will take legal action if necessary to prevent development of plans by the Illinois State Sanitary Water Board at Springfield approved a waste treatment project which would discharge its effluent into Horseshoe Lake.

The two-pronged program to "protect the interest of Horseshoe Lake landowners" was set up in a meeting called after the lake "was found to be striking Mr. Lancaster. She then fled east on Olive street."

Mr. Lancaster had been working Saturday and had ordered lunch at the Walton tavern, 434 S. Main street. An arm rested on the bar, the bullet entered his side below the arm and apparently pierced his heart, killing him instantly, it was learned from the Phillips City Hospital.

Witnesses said the woman had been using a telephone and appeared to become enraged during a conversation with military police regarding her absent-without-leave son. Slamming Robert's door, she drew a revolver from her purse and fired about five shots wildly in the direction of patrons at the bar, one bullet striking Mr. Lancaster. She then fled east on Olive street.

The 38-caliber bullet was allegedly fired by a woman angered by a telephone call.

The two did not know each other. Mrs. Nellie Bradley, 38, of 5406 Delmar street, world war II, was arrested at her home at 4 p.m. Saturday on warrants charging second-degree murder and carrying a concealed weapon.

Mr. Lancaster, an overseas U. S. Army veteran of world war II, was working Saturday and had ordered lunch at the Walton tavern, 434 S. Main street. An arm rested on the bar, the bullet entered his side below the arm and apparently pierced his heart, killing him instantly, it was learned from the Phillips City Hospital.

GC Youth Killed, 30 Persons Hurt In 47 Accidents

Michael Farrell, 19, Dies as Auto Runs into Fence along Lake drive

A Granite City youth was killed and 30 persons were injured in a near record-breaking 47 traffic crashes occurring in and near the Quad-Cities over the weekend.

Michael Richard Farrell, 19, of 2208 Adams street, was injured fatally at 5:12 a.m. Friday when the auto he was driving struck a chain link fence and utility pole in the 4000 block of Lake drive, Pontoon Beach.

He was pronounced dead upon arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital. An inquest is pending.

Madison county sheriff's deputies said he apparently lost control of the vehicle and it went off the left side of the road, traveling about 100 feet and tearing up a 75-foot section of fence before striking the pole.

A one-inch pipe supporting the fence was torn loose by the impact and pierced the windshield of the car, striking the driver in the neck. He was alone in the auto.

A lifelong resident of Granite City and a 1967 graduate of Granite City high school, he was in his freshman year at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus. He was a member of St. Peter's United Church of Christ and a former member of the Roca young men's club.

He is survived by his parents, Granite City Fireman Charles L. Farrell and Mrs. Alice Farrell; one sister, Peggy Dawn, 12 years old, at home; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Arbogast, and paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Sciarini, all of St. Louis.

Funeral services will be held this morning at St. Peter's United Church of Christ. Arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Six youths, including five from Granite City, suffered minor injuries when an auto driven by David Whitecotton, 17, of 2329 Center street, skidded on Adams Highway two miles west of Clinton, Tennessee, and ran into the Mississippi river about 5 p.m. Sunday.

Taken to St. Joseph's Hospital at Alton for observation were Whitecotton and five passengers, Kenneth Beason, 16, of 2524 Grand avenue; Terri Kowalski, 17, of 2220 Bern avenue; Steve Kruse, 15, of 2921 Indiana avenue; Mary Lou Kowalski, 16, of 2220 Bern avenue; and Egan, 16, of East St. Louis.

The bullet entered his leg and was not visible. However, it was realized that it might be there Friday morning and he was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital. After its removal, he was released Sunday to recuperate at his home. He is a ninth grade student at Coolidge Junior High school.

Vandals Shoot Windows Of Eight Autos Here

Worker Burning Old Freight Cars Dies of Burns

Wilbert Jenkins, 42, of 1230 Baker street, East St. Louis, burned to death here Friday while at work burning out a railroad freight car.

Mr. Jenkins, who apparently became trapped inside the wooden box car or accidentally fell into it, was found dead inside the car by fellow employees of the Lipsett Steel Products Co., 2320 East 23rd street.

Old freight cars are burned to salvage metal in their structures. Noting that they had not seen Mr. Jenkins for some time, other members of the crew began a search, directing their attention to a railroad car they had seen ignited earlier in the day.

At 3:45 p.m. Friday, they found his body burned beyond recognition. Deputy coroner Edward Werner pronounced him dead at the scene, and it was necessary to ask Granite City firemen to wash down the area before it was cool enough that the body could be removed.

The body was burned beyond recognition. An inquest is to be held.

Mr. Jenkins was employed as a laborer at the local firm. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Geraldine Jenkins.

He was taken to an East St. Louis funeral home, where arrangements are incomplete.

Car Knocked Into Tree
The eastbound auto of Mrs. Betty Jane Davis, 1404 Lincoln blvd., hit the rear of the parked car of Marshall B. McElroy, 2640 Warren avenue, on Leonard avenue near Warren at 7:55 a.m. Saturday. The parked auto was knocked forward about 12 feet, flattening its right front end, and collided with a mulberry tree. Mrs. Davis was charged with careless driving.

School Board Posts in GC, Madison Contested

Opposition for both school board posts open to election in the Madison school election April 12 developed over the weekend. The filing period for school elections expired at noon Saturday.

A three-way race for the two school board posts in Granite City District 9 will continue the other candidates in the Quad-City area. Venice has only two candidates for two board posts open to election.

Michael Leatherman, now president of the Venice school board, did not file for re-election. The Madison School District 12 election, both incumbents whose terms expire this year, William G. Schreiber of 819 Harris street and William Vavra of 1807 Fifth street—are seeking re-election. They are opposed by Sherrell L. Byrd, 545 Mercedia street, Venice, and Thomas E. Watson, 922 Reynolds street, Madison. Watson also is a candidate for Madison city clerk subject to the April 15 Madison city election.

In Granite City School District 9 incumbent board members A. L. "Pete" Metcalf, 2718 Cayuga street, and L. Monroe Worthen, 2965 Fort drive, are candidates for re-election. The third candidate seeking one of the two posts is Mary E. Church, 2148 Roberts street.

In Venice School District 3, incumbent board member Fred Rumpf, 620 Washington avenue, has filed for re-election while the other post now held by Leatherman will go to Willie C. Johnson sr. of 900 Third street. Their status as candidates without opposition is tentative to election.

MORE ABOUT Program

urban renewal or housing projects.

The program also provides federal grants that may be used to purchase deteriorated home sites for new construction.

Under the federal program, the new houses may be built a few at a time if so desired. They may be financed by private capital or, if the money is available, by the cities themselves.

The plan permits the cities to select sites where replacement is most sorely needed, and any number of projects may be carried out at any time as available funds permit.

The cities may buy deteriorated dwellings, raze them and replace them with new dwellings on the site. The original occupant of the site is given first opportunity to buy the new home. If he refuses, or wishes to relocate elsewhere, the city may sell the home to any buyer.

Zoning Necessary

To qualify for the program, both Venice and Madison plans will be required to complete planning and zoning ordinances.

These are now being set up by the Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission and are expected to be adopted in time to include in the federal application that will be prepared by the St. Louis planning firm.

The contract calls for completion of the work necessary to filing of an application within 150 days after the contract is accepted by the two communities.

The contract with the St. Louis planners was given the city of Venice six weeks ago, but passage was held up pending revision to more definitely spell out the work that would be done by the planning firm.

Madison held up adoption of its contract until Venice revised the terms, since Madison plans to approve the same terms as those in the Venice contract.

Street Repair Contract
The Venice council Friday night awarded to MacLair Asphalt Co. of Collinsville a contract for extensive Venice street repairs as a motor fuel tax project.

The work calls for construction of six-inch bituminous concrete surfacing and guttering on Weaver street from Market to College, Jackson street from Weaver to the west city limits, Madison street from Weaver to the west city limits and Circle drive from Bissell to Klein. MacLair Asphalt was low bidder with an offer of $15,503 for the overall project. Reese Construction Co. of East St. Louis was the only other bidder, with an offer of $16,000. Engineering estimates of the cost totaled $15,148.

New Alley Lights

A resolution instructing Illinois Power Co. to install 6000-lumen incandescent lights in two alley locations was approved by council members. The new lights will be installed in alleys at the rear of 314 Third street and the rear of 708 Third street, each on the nearest existing pole.

Chief of Police John Essington reported to council members that his department made a total of 62 arrests during February and received $578 from the circuit clerk's office, representing fines assessed in cases involving violations of city ordinances.

Essington said 13 of the arrests were based on city ordinances and 25 arrests were made on traffic charges. State charges were filed in nine arrests, he said.

Other arrests included one person arrested as AWOL and turned over to Army authorities; one arrested on a charge of failing to appear for hearing in an earlier case; one on a charge of failure to pay a fine; two arrested for Brooklyn police; one arrested as a mental patient and turned over to relatives; one released without charge; five arrested for the sheriff's office; two arrested for investigation and released; and one arrested for the Madison police department.

Chouteau Twp. Electors Uphold Commissioner

An effort to force the resignation of Chouteau Township Highway Commissioner James Estes, who has been under attack for services provided was resolved in a special town meeting Friday afternoon when a group of electors voted to reject a petition asking Estes to resign.

More than 60 persons attended the meeting in Old Parish Hall on East Chain of Rocks road at 1 p.m. Friday as the result of a controversy in which one bloc of township residents contended that Estes failed to devote sufficient time to his job as highway commissioner because he was working two other full-time jobs.

The special meeting was called by Town Clerk George Warnecke after a petition bearing 22 signatures was filed with the town clerk. Warnecke said a petition bearing a minimum of 15 names made it mandatory for the clerk to call a special town meeting.

Estes Presents Petition
Following election of Stanley Lucas as moderator, Estes presented Lucas with a petition bearing 650 signatures which maintained that Chouteau township roads are now in better condition than ever before. No action was taken on the petition because such action was not within the scope of the special meeting call.

On a motion from the floor that the original petition seeking Estes' removal be denied, 37 electors held up their hands on a call for yes votes. No negative votes were cast.

The original petition was initiated by Doyle Barnes, a Hills Terrace resident, who charged Estes was responsible for flooding conditions in the area and that Estes never could be reached because he was working three jobs—as highway commissioner, as a night deputy sheriff and as an employee of the State Highway Department.

Estes denied this, pointing out that he had not worked the highway department since the change in state administration. Barnes charged that under Illinois township law a highway commissioner receiving salary of $5000 or more is required to devote full time to the office.

St. Joseph's Student Wins K. C. Spelling Bee

The only boy in a group of 12 contestants won the championship of the annual spelling bee sponsored by Tri-City Council 1098 of the Knights of Columbus Sunday afternoon at the K. of C. hall.

He is James Rozycke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rozycke, 214 Delmar avenue. A student at St. Joseph's parochial school, he outlasted Debbie Saltich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Saltich, 2972 Washington avenue, a student at Sacred Heart school.

Bringing a grueling session to a close, she misspelled the word "scenario," which Rozycke spelled correctly.

The third place winner was Lee Ann Burgener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Burgener, 629 Lincoln avenue, Venice, a student at St. Mark's school.

The K. of C.'s traveling trophy will be held by St. Joseph's school for the next year. It was held last year by St. Margaret Mary's school as the 1968 bee was won by another boy, Kenneth Bezan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bezan, 3145 Myrtle avenue.

Individual trophies were presented to the top three winners, who also were provided with copies of Webster's Seventh New Collegiate Dictionary provided by the Press-Record. Rozycke and the Saltich girl will represent the local K. of C. council at the Madison county spelling bee to be held at 7:30 p.m. April 25 at the K. of C. club at Edwardsville. The Burgener girl will serve as an alternate.

Air Pollution

Illegally salvaged steel using a high-pressure water jet or other non-combustible techniques now being studied by the Railway Salvage Association.

Firm commitments have been received by the board from other industries in abatement programs for particulate emissions with some in operation already. Such as the precipitators at Granite City Steel's basic oxygen furnace. The bag house installation is nearly ready. American Steel Foundries furnaces and planned for this year at General Steel Industries.

Granite City's strong interest in air control that dates back to the adoption of an anti-flyash ordinance in 1965, became evident in 1964 and 1965 when there was extensive darkening and streaking of lead based paints on homes and periods of strong, pungent odors.

With technical equipment and assistance of a commercial testing organization authorized by the city council, the problem cause was determined to be hydrogen sulphide gas, and the primary source was pinpointed. The board's technical secretary filed a formal complaint and the board conducted a public hearing.

"This resulted," the report pointed out, "in additional action being taken by Granite City Steel at coking operations. These corrective measures have resulted in elimination of the serious paint discoloration problems associated with hydrogen sulphide gas emissions, although some objectionable emissions and odors still occasionally occur."

Additional monitoring programs with source determination and correction are planned for the near future. Chairman Bieniecki says the city air pollution control goals can be attained — "with adequate support locally and with financial and technical assistance from the state and federal levels."

SIU Board Studies Designs for Dorms At SIU-SW Campus

Trustees of Southern Illinois University, meeting in Carbondale Friday, reviewed preliminary architect's plans for a single student residence hall complex, a general classroom and office building and an addition to the Communications building—all at the Southwest campus here.

Further discussion is planned for the April 18 trustee meeting at the local area campus. It was learned from Harold R. Fisher of Granite City, member of the SIU board.

The housing complex for 1000 unmarried students is proposed as a revenue bond project, with three dormitory neighborhoods in the vicinity of the campus lake.

The general classroom and office building is for the expanding business and education facilities, while the addition to the Communications building is for an auditorium and a medium-sized stage facility for the performing arts.

In addition, the board approved the granting of a doctor of dental medicine degree.

A cutlass and an iron-bound chest may have been adequate in Captain Kidd's day — but modern protection methods are much surer and safer.

Just because your valuable papers are under lock and key in your home, is no sign that they're safe. They are still in danger of theft and other hazards such as fire, wind or water damage.

The truly safe place is in a Granite City Trust safe deposit box. Think about it, and then come in and provide real protection for your valuables.

Favored Proviso Wins After Score In Semifinal Game

Southern Illinoisans still think they play the best brand of basketball, but top state high school honors again went north Saturday night at Champaign as Proviso East of Maywood used height and sharpshooting to defeat Peoria Spalding 58-51. Spalding had eliminated Bellevue East 80-61 Friday.

Champaign Central topped Aurora East 56-49 for third place. In the semifinals, Proviso nipped Champaign 57-36 on Jim Brewer's two free throws with six seconds left, and Spalding ousted Aurora 66-53. In the quarterfinals, Proviso beat Waukegan 52-44. Champaign whipped Galesburg 62-57 and Aurora downed Mount Vernon 62-46.

Proviso, the season-long favorite, ended with a 36-1 record for Tom Milliken, first to coach a state champion team after playing on one, Pinckneyville in 1968.

Spalding's Irish were 28-4, the second-place finish was the highest ever (in 62 years) for an Illinois parochial school. Peoria Spalding placed third in 1968.

Rain Delays Trojans, GCHS Squad Hopeful

The Madison high school baseball team, scheduled to open its season here against Assumption today, has postponed the game due to rain and mud. It may be played tomorrow.

In Time of Emergency

If Warning Sounds, Here's What to Do

Warning of an enemy attack on the United States probably would be preceded by a period of international tension or crisis which would help alert all citizens to the possibility of attack. The actual attack warning, however, would be given to the public by outdoor warning devices, supplemented by radio or television.

If an attack actually occurs, it is almost certain that incoming enemy planes and missiles would be detected by our networks of warning stations in time for people to get into shelters or at least take cover. This warning time might be as little as 5-15 minutes in some locations, and as much as an hour or more in others.

Outdoor Warning Systems

Many U.S. cities and towns have outdoor warning systems, using sirens, whistles, horns or bells. Although they have been installed mainly to warn citizens of enemy attack, some local governments also use them in connection with natural disasters and other peacetime catastrophes.

THE ATTACK WARNING SIGNAL will be sounded only in case of enemy attack. The signal itself is a 3 to 5-minute warning and falling sound on the sirens, on whistles, horns or other devices, repeated as necessary. The Attack Warning Signal means that an actual enemy attack against the United States has been detected, and that people should take protective action immediately. This signal has no other meaning, and can be used for no other purpose.

In some communities, the local government uses an alert signal to get the attention of citizens in a time of threat, or impending natural disaster, or some other peacetime emergency. This attention or alert signal is a 3 to 5-minute steady sound on sirens, whistles, horns or other devices. In most places, it means that the local government will broadcast important information and official instructions on radio or television concerning a peacetime disaster.

When the Attack Warning Signal Sounds

The Attack Warning Signal means—unless other instructions have been issued by local government—that people should go immediately to a public fallout shelter marked with a yellow and-black sign or to a home fallout shelter.

Once in the fallout shelter, the radio should be tuned to any local station that is broadcasting to get official information and instructions.

If there is no public or private shelter available, fallout protection should be improvised. As a last resort, take cover anywhere possible.

If a warning signal sounds, do not use the telephone to obtain further information and advice about the emergency. Radio stations—and television stations also, except in an actual nuclear emergency—will be broadcasting all the official information available. The telephone lines will be needed for official calls.

If There Is a Nuclear Flash...

It is possible but unlikely that the first warning of an enemy attack would be the flash of a nuclear explosion in the sky some distance away. Or there might be a flash after warning had been given, possibly while people were going to shelter.

TAKE COVER INSTANTLY. If there should be a nuclear flash, take cover instantly in the best place available. By getting inside or under something within a few seconds, serious burns or injuries from the heat or blast waves of the nuclear explosion might be avoided. If the explosion were some distance away, a person might have 5 to 15 seconds before being injured by the heat, and perhaps 20 to 60 seconds before the blast wave arrived.

Never look at the flash of an explosion or the nuclear fireball—it could cause permanent blindness. Any kind of a building—a storm cellar or fruit cellar, a subway station or tunnel, a ditch or culvert alongside the road, a highway overpass, a storm sewer, a cave or outcropping of rock, a pile of heavy materials, or a trench or other excavation—would provide some protection. However, if no cover is available, simply lie down on the ground and curl up covering the head with the arms and hands. The important thing is to avoid being burned by the heat, thrown about by the blast, or struck by flying objects. Then go to a fallout shelter for protection against the radioactive fallout, which would arrive later.

The information in this story was furnished by the U.S. Department of Defense, Office of Civil Defense, to help people prepare for a nuclear attack and learn what actions to take in case an attack should occur. Local government authorities are responsible for supplying the public with more detailed survival instructions for this area. This information was drawn from the OGD publication "In Time of Emergency" (H-14), which is available without charge at local civil defense offices.

Runs Against Auto

A boy about eight years old escaped apparent injury at 3:40 p.m. Friday when he stepped from in front of a parked car and into the side of the northbound auto of Cecil Stacy, 2812 Indiana avenue, on Iowa street at 26th street.

Two Autos Sideswipe

Northbound autos of Arnold Rasch, Alton, and Joseph Angles, Edwardsville, sideswiped on Nameoki road after making right turns from Madison avenue at 4 p.m. Saturday.

Parking Lot Accident

The right side of an auto owned by Floyd E. Ridgeway, 4110 Bruene avenue, parked at the Nameoki Village shopping center, was struck by a hit-and-run driver at 5:30 p.m. Sunday.

Conduct Charge Filed

Anita Champion, 18, of 1406 State street, was charged by Granite City police with disorderly conduct at 10:10 p.m. yesterday, following a disturbance at Mary's Grill, 2000 State street.

THE GRANITE CITY REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE

March 19, 1969

Roy M. Lynn
Chairman
Lester J. Thiele
Secretary
Lily P. Chaboude

Dear Friend:

In the past, most Republicans have observed a policy of silence during City elections, since candidates for City offices are usually Democrats. Mayor Partney is also a registered Democrat. However, the importance of electing the right kind of man for our Mayor on April 1st takes precedence over political protocol when the future of our City and its people are at stake. We are endorsing Mayor Donald Partney because we believe he is not only better qualified than his opponent, but he has proved his capability for the job and should be returned to office.

We have always opposed the Democrat political machine in the State of Illinois, with its headquarters in the Mayor's office in the City of Chicago. Seemingly East St. Louis, Madison and Venice dutifully wait for a nod from Chicago when transacting the business of their City's government. We have reason to believe that the opposition candidate for Mayor of Granite City has the support and also the financial backing of this group, and we feel he would be waiting for the same nod in transacting our business, if elected.

The government of the City of Granite City belongs to the people, and only the people have the power to decide the kind of government we will have for the next four years. The majority of the Committee believes that Mayor Partney will continue to assure that our City business will be transacted in our own City Hall, by our own Mayor, ignoring all nods from Chicago, and he deserves our enthusiastic endorsement for re-election.

Bill Would Require Drug Abuse Training

Legislation to establish federal programs to encourage more intensive education about drugs and their abuse was introduced in the House at Washington, D.C., last week by Cong. Melvin Price (D-East St. Louis) and several dozen colleagues.

Cong. Price said the bill, known as the Drug Abuse Education Act of 1969, has an excellent chance of being passed this year and signed into law by President Nixon.

"LSD, marijuana, barbiturates, amphetamines and even heroin are circulating among more and more youngsters," Price said. "Our educational system must focus attention on this extremely serious health and social problem."

He said many schools have been hampered in providing drug education programs because of lack of effective teacher training and uncertainty about the availability of the "right" teaching materials.

'A Funny Thing Happened...' Key Roles for GC Residents In Masquers New Production

Several Granite Cityans will have key roles in the Masquers' production of "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," to be presented Friday and Saturday, April 11 and 12, in the Webster Junior high school auditorium, Collinsville.

Mrs. Mildred (Milli) Hoelscher of Granite City, a member of the Masquers since 1961 and current president of the theatrical group's board of directors, is director and choreographer.

Members of the cast who will portray the roles of Senex, a citizen of Rome, and his domineering wife, Domina, are Earl Parsons, previously seen in the Masquers production of "Brigadoon," and Beverly Scroggins, who received the "Masquer Award" as Best Actress of the Season for her performance as Lili in "Carnival."

A sixth grade teacher at Mitchell School and the mother of two boys, Mrs. Scroggins has long been interested in theatre work, having majored in this field at Southern Illinois University. She has served in almost every phase of the theatrical craft—acting, singing, dancing, make-up and costumes, and directing.

She spent a summer in Branson, Mo., with the Shepherd of the Hills Theatre and also appeared with the Community Theatre and Municipal Opera in Springfield, Ill. Her stage credits include "South Pacific," "Taming of the Shrew," "Twelfth Night," "Come Blow Your Horn" and "Teahouse of the August Moon."

Beside directing "The Rainmaker," Mrs. Scroggins has appeared in the Masquers productions of "A Thousand Clowns" and "Dirty Work at the Crossroads."

Parsons currently serves as parliamentarian for company's governing board. For the past several years, he has handled production details for the Jaycees' Miss Granite City Pageant.

Founder and adviser for the Rock Young Men's Club of Granite City, Parsons has produced and appeared in four variety shows presented annually by the youth club membership. He is employed as an instructor at Central School of Cosmetology, where he operates his own salon, The Earl of Curl, here.

Prior to her present duties as director of the Masquers' spring production, Mrs. Hoelscher directed "The King and I" and "Carnival." She has served as choreographer for several other musicals, including "Carousel" and "Brigadoon," and has appeared in "Pajama Game" and "Dirty Work at the Crossroads," an earlier offering this season.

Mrs. Hoelscher holds a B. S. degree in Dance Arts and an M. A. degree in Theatre Arts from the University of Illinois. She has been a member of the dance faculty for the University of Minnesota-Duluth, University of Arkansas, University of Illinois and the Oakland technical high school in Oakland, Calif.

At the present time, she is a pre-school teacher in Project Lift-Off, Title I program in the Granite City school system. In addition, she also serves as instructor for the Tri-Cities YMCA in ballet and modern dance.

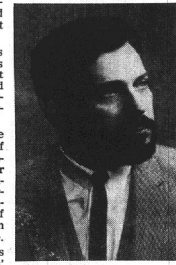

The director's theatrical experience includes both college and community theatre work. She played Juliet in the S. W. Theatre Conference production of "Romeo and Juliet." While in California, she and her husband, Bill, participated in the founding and productions of Contra Costa Musical Theatre, a semi-professional community theatre group in Concord, Calif. The award winning musical "Pajama Game" by Burt Shevelove, Larry Gelbart and Stephen Sondheim, is set in ancient Rome. The play won the title "Best Musical of the Year," during its Broadway run.

RIDC Expands Aid To Prospective Industry Firms

An expanded service to assist firms find plant sites or vacant buildings for expansion anywhere in the Bi-State region has been launched by the Regional Industrial Development Corporation, Ronald I. Sachs, senior plant location specialist, announced Friday.

The service involves the publication of an industrial letter which outlines the requirements a potential prospect is seeking, whether it is a tract of land, vacant building, type of employees needed, power and transportation requirements or portion of the region for which the firm has a locational preference.

This letter is mailed to over 150 realtors, industrial development groups, chambers of commerce, railroads and utilities throughout an eight-county area served by RIDC, in Illinois, Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties, and in Missouri, St. Louis, St. Charles, Franklin and Jefferson counties and the city of St. Louis.

Without revealing the prospect by name, the industrial letter asks interested agencies to forward a proposal to RIDC, who in turn presents it to the prospect, since most location decision is actually reached.

"This service is available, at no cost, not only to out-of-town firms looking at our area for expansion, but to local firms seeking larger quarters as well," Sachs said.

"The industrial letter is designed to supplement information already compiled in our existing site location facility which contains over 600 industrial sites charted as to location, size and price. However, since availability of sites is constantly changing, this will allow us to keep our files completely current as of the date of any request and will make people in the land development business immediately aware of potential prospects," he added. RIDC is a non-profit, civic corporation seeking to encourage new industry to locate in the bi-state region and help local industry expand.

Miss Prusak, Michael Smith Exchange Vows

Miss Elaine Anne Prusak and Michael R. Smith exchanged wedding vows Saturday afternoon at St. Elizabeth Roman Catholic Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Prusak, 2232 Waterman avenue. Mr. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, 1229 North 42nd street, East St. Louis.

Rev. Lawrence J. Mattingly, pastor, officiated at the 5:30 double ring ceremony. Bouquets of white gladioli, mums and daisies were placed on each side of the altar.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Margaret Mac Zura, who sang "Ave Maria," "O Lord I Am Not Worthy" and "Mother At Your Feet We're Kneeling," with Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw accompanying at the organ.

The bride was escorted down the aisle by her father. She wore a gown of pure white organza over silk styled in Victorian fashion. An Empire gown of organza with Schiffler tucked embroidery bands placed in three horizontal lines were caught at the bodice by a band of white ribbon centered with a bow.

The high neckline was edged with a delicate row of organza detailed with reemboiled flowers. The long puffy sleeves of sheer organza ended at wrist length with a band of Schiffler.

The "A-line" skirt was of organza. It fell to the floor, where a wide band of alternating rows of ribbon and rows of the reemboiled flowers bordered the skirt. A long cathedral train detailed the back with a matching band of ribbon; rows of flowers came to a point, with three bows complementing the train effect.

The headpiece was a cloud of bridal illusion flowing into the cathedral train. It was gathered to a band of lilies of the valley carried with sprigs of miniature seed pearls.

The bride carried a nosegay of pure white carnations intermingled with white daisies surrounded by variegated polorum.

Miss Pam McCollum, a friend of the bride from Ponce, Puerto Rico, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Prusak, sister of the bride, Mrs. Marie Frysztok Fellers of Norman, Okla., Miss Mary Jane Hamacher of St. Louis, former roommate at college, Mrs. Connie Von Eimen, a sorority sister, also from St. Louis, and Mrs. Maggi Harlan Lyons, a sorority sister from Columbia, Mo.

They were dressed alike in floor-length gowns of canary yellow linen with "A-line" skirts. The bodices were of soft Alencon lace over imported perau de soie with high necklines set off with tiny standing ruffle collars. Each Empire bodice was caught with a band of light olive silk ribbon centered with a bow.

Long sleeves of matching lace briefly covered the wrists, ending in tiny ruffles.

Their headpieces were large spring picture hats of a light beige with olive green ribbon encircling the hat and ending in long streamers.

They carried wicker flower baskets filled with white daisies, green foliage and long olive green streamers.

Junior bridesmaids were Angela Jakich and Janet Jakich, cousins of the bride. They were attired in gowns similar to that of the bride with bodices of Chantilly lace over peau de soie gathered at the Empire waists and bands of ribbon, each centered with a bow. Their long skirts were of canary yellow. They carried baskets of spring daisies with green foliage and long green streamers.

The flower girl, Tanny Kincaid of East St. Louis, wore a long gown of white lace with pale yellow skirt. Bradley Hoelter carried the rings.

Tony Yovandich of East St. Louis served as best man. The corps of groomsmen and ushers included Rick Thornton of East St. Louis, Jon Ford of MRS. MICHAEL R. SMITH, the former Elaine Prusak, who was married Saturday at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church.

Collinsville, Wait Bruder, Rod Staggs, a fraternity brother from Fort Dodge, Ia., David Fontilla of San Francisco, Timothy D. Smith, brother of the groom, and Michael Jakich, cousin of the bride.

Presiding at the guest book was Mrs. Diane Hoelter. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Prusak wore a pink crepe dress covered with a lighter shade of soft chiffon detailed with a roll collar and a pearl leaf cluster at the neckline, with long sheer sleeves and a matching coat of hot pink peau de soie. Gloves of soft summer pink, bought by the bride when recently in England, complemented her attire.

Mrs. Smith, the bridegroom's mother, chose a turquoise dress with matching coat and a jeweled necklace.

Both mothers were presented with corsages matching their ensembles.

A rehearsal dinner was given by the groom's parents Friday at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Mildred Demko of St. Louis. A buffet dinner was served.

A reception was held at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the Polish Hall in Madison.

Following a honeymoon to Acapulco, Mexico, the newlyweds will make their home in Granite City, beginning about April 1.

Miss Judith Gail Anderson Is Bride of Michael Frey

An out-of-town wedding of interest here was that Saturday at St. Clare Roman Catholic Church in O'Fallon, Ill., of Miss Judith Gail Anderson, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Anderson, 2416 Hemlock avenue, Granite City, and Michael Charles Frey, whose parents are Lt. Col. (Ret.) and Mrs. Charles Frey, 101 Westminster avenue, O'Fallon.

The noon nuptial Mass was performed by the Rev. Jerome Wirth before the altar decorated with arrangements of white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Wedding music was furnished by the St. Clare Youth Choir who performed quiddi wedding Mass selections.

The bride chose a floor-length gown of white satin with Venice lace. The sleeves were trimmed with wide bands of lace and the A-line skirt ended in a detachable train secured to the gown with a flat bow at the waist. The skirt was applied around the edges with motifs of the same lace.

A bouffant veil was secured to a satin pillbox and the bridal bouquet, a cascade, was made up of English white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Dennis Belin, matron of honor, Miss Ruth Ann Anderson, the bride's sister, and Mrs. Ronald Schuetz, a sister of the bridegroom from Rochelle, Ill., were dressed alike in gowns of yellow crepe with high rise wedding band collars of yellow satin, long sleeves with bands of yellow satin and column skirts. They carried nosegays of tangerine carnations and floor-length satin streamers. Matching veils were held in place with flat yellow bows. Robert Young of Collinsville was best man and the corps of groomsmen and ushers was made up of Robert Young of Collinsville, Larry Pieper of Granite City, Barry Rhien, Edwardsville, Dennis Belin and Ronald Schuetz.

Miss Patricia Armstrong presided over the guest book at the reception. She is a former Granite City resident now in Newport News, Va.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Anderson selected a pale pink coat dress of silk shantung and a corsage of white carnations tipped with pink. The bridegroom's mother was in a deep rose ensemble, coat and dress, of silk shantung. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations.

The bride, a graduate of Granite City high school, is employed as a secretary in the Audio-Visual Center at SIU-SW. Mr. Frey is a junior at SIU where he is majoring in business. He is a member of Alpha Delta Chi fraternity.

The wedding reception was held at the VFW hall in O'Fallon.

The rehearsal dinner was given by the bridegroom's parents at Augustine's in Belleville Friday evening.

Homemakers' Corner

Planning Family Kitchens

Unless you take an active part in planning your new kitchen, it won't necessarily be efficient. Many builders, architects and kitchen planners neither understand the homemakers' problems nor do they apply available research information.

Whether you are planning a new kitchen or remodeling an old one, here are some suggestions to consider regarding the location.

The kitchen should have a view of the driveway and farm buildings if you live on the farm.

It should also have a view of the service yard and play area and be easily accessible to those areas.

It should also be accessible from the front entrance, preferably out of view from the front entrance and living room.

It should connect directly with dining area or areas.

Traffic should by-pass the work area of the kitchen. Avoid cluttering the main thoroughfare to the rest of the house.

You can frequently solve many problems of inefficiency in older homes by moving the kitchen into a seldom-used dining room and remodeling the kitchen into a utility room.

Base your own requirements on the activities to take place in the kitchen.

Meal preparation and dishwashing are basic kitchen activities. But eating-areas needs differ widely among families.

In addition, some kitchens serve as the family living center, the business center or the laundry center. Ideally, the laundry should not be in the kitchen if there is an alternate first-floor location.

Obviously, soiled clothes and food are not compatible. Also, the noise of the laundry equipment can be annoying while you are busy with meal preparation or eating.

Go Fly a Kite—Safely
Kite flying is a traditional spring sport, can spell tragedy unless children follow a few simple safety rules.

O. L. Hogsett, University of Illinois Extension safety specialist, recommends that parents see that youngsters have proper string for their kites and that they stay in safe areas, away from power lines.

Kite string is sturdy and non-metallic so that it will not conduct electricity. Be sure to emphasize the need for keeping the string dry. A water-soaked string may be a good electrical conductor.

If the kite does happen to tangle with power lines, leave it there. Encourage children to fly kites in fields where there are no stumps, ditches or other obstacles. Getting the kite into the air takes all the flyer's attention and he doesn't have time to watch for tripping hazards.

We're Up to Our Necks in Furniture, Floor Covering, Bedding and Appliances

Every year as of April 1st we must fill out a Personal Property Tax Schedule on every item in our huge store and warehouse inventory, just as you do on your own personal property.

For this reason we've decided to take mark downs on all merchandise in our inventory that is 3 months or older and sell it out prior to April 1st during our Annual Personal Property Inventory Reduction Sale. We hope to accomplish two things by cutting prices like this. First of all we hope to reduce our inventory and therefore cut our tax bill. Secondly, we hope to make room for all the new spring merchandise that is now beginning to come in.

The study was taught by Mrs. Jo Ann Terrell on "Jud's Alaskan Adventure" by Kathleen Pearce. Five paper bags suspended from the ceiling held surprises related to the story. One held a game, and another meat and fish of the kind eaten by eskimos.

Ice cream bars were served. Present were Debra Kirgen, Melissa Corcoran, Paula Hopper, Barbara Phillips, Margaret Carlisle, Jeanne Kunick, Lynn Coker, Tami Terrell, Lorraine Miles, Julia Mendoza, Ruthie Geggus, Diane Schwendemann, Barbara Heil, Carrie Cook, Terry Varady, Kim Kitchen, Ruth Ann Fisher, Laura Ward, Martha Fix and Jimmy, Johnny and Judy Kunick.

PARTNEY HAS OPERATED CITY WITH HONESTY

To the Editor:

I have listed a few of the reasons, in my opinion, why a large majority of the politicians (aldermen and precinct committeemen) are against the honest mayor of Granite City, Mayor Partney.

He was elected mayor four years ago with no obligation to any party political machine.

The majority of the precinct committeemen, who are headed by Supt. of Streets William Ward, supported Mayor Partney's opposition then, just as they are doing now.

For a non-partisan public official to be elected by a large majority of the politicians is almost unheard of in Granite City history.

Mayor Partney tried to do the proper thing after the election by shaking hands with his opposition and trying to work for the benefit of all the people of the city.

A good example of his ability to work with his opposition is G. H. Sternberg, who was elected for mayor at the same time.

As was shown by Mr. Sternberg's independent vote, he supported the majority of Mayor Partney's programs while he was on the council. He is also supporting Mayor Partney in his bid for re-election.

Since taking office, Mayor Partney has repeatedly made it known to all firms who are interested in doing business with the city that it is not necessary to include any "extra" in their bids to take care of city officials.

This has been the costly practice in many communities, a practice condoned by many public officials.

Some aldermen have requested Mayor Partney to ask the sewer contractor to stop bleeding or tearing up any major thoroughfares until after the election, as they felt it might hurt their chances, as well as his, of being re-elected.

He has refused their requests, as he felt as much work as physically possible should be done on the sewers prior to the spring rains.

Mayor Partney has established a hiring policy for new city employees where they are required to pass physical examinations and written tests, and undergo a thorough investigation by the police, prior to their employment, to make sure they have no criminal record.

In the past, and as stated by some of the aldermen, they believe that everything should be hired solely on the recommendation of the alderman.

There have been no lugs on any city employee or salary of an office-holder's check under Mayor Partney's administration. This can't be said for some of the past holders of this office.

I believe Mayor Partney's honesty in not agreeing with the council at times and making known to their demands has benefited the city and the taxpayer.

If he had given in to some of their requests and agreed to raise taxes would be higher than they are now, if that were possible. Or else we would be operating "in the red," as East St. Louis is now doing.

All I ask the citizens of Granite City to do is to ask any present officeholder or candidate for citizen—whether they be for or against Mayor Partney—if they can question his honesty.

I personally feel that honesty with the public as well as himself is the top requirement for any public official.

Therefore, I ask the people not only to vote for Mayor Partney but to support him in his efforts to be re-elected as mayor of Granite City.

RICHARD FRY

CLUB OBJECTIVES AIDED

To the Editor:

May I take this opportunity to thank you and your paper for all of the wonderful publicity that our club has received.

I am leaving the office of president for the past two years, one of the finest organizations that I have had the honor and privilege of joining.

The activities include community participation, personal development, the legislative field, public relations, world affairs and various other projects for the elevation of the standards for women.

Without your cooperation, our goal could not have been met to let the public know of the objectives of the Business and Professional Women's Federation.

Many, many thanks to you and your staff for a job well done.

MRS. MARY BATSON

Retiring President, Granite City Chapter of Business and Professional Women's Club

MAJOR CLAIMS TOO MUCH OF CREDIT FOR PROGRESS

To the Editor:

I have served on the city council with four former mayors of Granite City, Mayor Kirkpatrick, Grantham, Davis and Partney.

When Donald Partney was elected mayor in 1965 he had, without question, the unanimous best wishes and cooperation of all 16 aldermen. But to the appointment of a majority of the aldermen, he presented a "holier than thou" attitude, ignoring the fact that each alderman represents the wishes and needs of the citizens of the wards and city.

Under previous mayors, when misunderstandings developed they would sit down with the aldermen and reach an understanding. That is cooperation.

In the lack of harmony now existing on the council, Mayor Partney to my knowledge has made no effort or attempt to reach an understanding with a majority of the duly elected representatives of the citizens.

Previous mayors consulted with aldermen on appointments of standing committees. An example of non-cooperation was his naming of committees in May, 1968. Without any consultation with the council, he made many abrupt changes that were not acceptable to a majority.

Experience with standing departments had little value with him. His explanation that he wanted aldermen to get a broader understanding of city affairs just won't stand up with sound reasoning. One example: why name some alderman chairman of three committees and another alderman chairman of no committee? If it was in error, he made no attempt to correct it.

When the council refused to approve, he said, "If you don't want to serve on the committee, I appointed you to, then refuse to serve." Do such statements promote harmony?

After this action by the mayor, the council with competent legal advice exercised proper legislative action to establish legal standing committees as provided by state law. He vetoed this. The council then by more than two-thirds passed it over the veto.

Did he attempt to harmonize? No, he went to court. And a court of competent jurisdiction gave a verdict in favor of the council. The mayor still refuses to cooperate, and I understand has appealed to a higher court.

Who creates disharmony instead of cooperation? If he is as concerned about city affairs as he contends, he would have sat down with the aldermen and attempted to work out the differences. Since the court decided against him, to my knowledge he has done nothing to bring harmony and cooperation with his office and the council.

As I read in a column, "Cooperation would solve most of our problems. Every citizen as would make a nice coat of tan if they would ever get together." How can we have a coat of tan when one freckle is so obvious. I'm too bright for you."

In reply to a sarcastic remark by the mayor at a public hearing, I said, "If that synthetic halo you have placed about your head gets any brighter, I'll need smoked glasses."

Mayor Partney has perhaps vetoed more council action and had more of his vetoes overridden than any other mayor in Granite City.

In his campaign literature, he claims credit for public improvements, some of which he vetoed or opposed.

"Aerial firetruck without any vote for taxpayers. Not true," Alderman Dallas and I worked out an arrangement with Granite City Steel, trading part of Omaha street for the truck.

This street belonged to the taxpayers. Further, the arrangement was made during Mayor Davis's term; the truck was delivered after Partney became mayor.

"New sewage treatment plant. The city is saving $100,000. Not true." It was developed and construction started during Davis's tenure. The low charges to homeowners were developed by the Special Pollution Plant Committee of Alderman Johnson and McGeehan myself, with the help of the bond issue fiscal advisor.

Most of the major street improvements for public use were developed and planned before his term and completed with the aid of the council during his term.

The job did not originate with Mayor Partney.

Many of the street and sidewalk improvements were obtained over his veto.

His assertion that, with his experience and know-how he has saved the city $100,000 in general, state and county taxes for city improvements and low-rent housing is one of the many ridiculous claims anyone could make.

Try State Election Supervision Before

Creating Downstate County Commissions

We can see value in the Senate-passed bill to place elections in large downstate counties under the general supervision of the State Electoral Board.

It would reduce the power of local-level election officials in situations where competing representatives of both parties disregard the real will of the public and, by diverse quasi-legal techniques, consistently deliver a false majority for favored candidates. The fact that the main objective of this legislation resides in St. Clair county may be more than coincidental.

Experience with state elections conducted by the General Assembly ought to reject a reported plan to amend a Cook county election reform bill. The reform bill merits passage as originally introduced, and should not be amended this year to create county election commissions in other parts of the state.

We think that this procedure should be performance-tested during the next two years, and that the General Assembly ought to reject a reported plan to amend a Cook county election reform bill. The reform bill merits passage as originally introduced, and should not be amended this year to create county election commissions in other parts of the state.

Star-Filled Summer Evenings Await Music

Enthusiasts of This Region at Local Campus

The best way to enjoy good music is on one's back, gazing up at a star-studded sky, attired in clothes sufficiently old or inexpensive that it is possible to avoid worry over wrinkles or grass stains.

Many Quad-Citizens have discovered this at "Music Under the Stars" concerts at Wilson Park, and now the entire region will have an opportunity to relax outdoors on the spacious SIU-SU campus and hear the St. Louis Symphony orchestra in a series of open air concerts during a six-week period beginning June 20.

The potential gains are tremendous—greater music study and appreciation, more family togetherness, and wider knowledge of some of the finest musical talent in the world that together make up this metropolitan area.

There will be a tent, chairs, food, picnic tables and other amenities at the Mississippi River Festival 1969. But the most fun will be in the simple enjoyment of a pleasant evening and a variety of melodic and moving musical selections played with consummate skill and verve. The university and symphony deserve the applause they will get for arranging these free programs.

We hope they include some tunes by Sousa, who once wrote, "On a peaceful summer evening when the sun has set, and the cares of the day linger yet, don't be sad and don't be tired for there's a place to go..." Our memory fails us at that point, but the reference in the song was to an outdoor music program, perhaps much like those which await us this summer.

Safer Speed Limit on Route 111 Achieved

Three cheers are due the Pontoon Beach village board, whose persistent efforts have persuaded the Illinois Division of Highways to reduce the speed limit from 65 to 50 miles an hour on Highway 111 near collision-plagued Pontoon road.

With the exception of the federal grant for the sanitary air stormwater sewers now being installed, Partney as mayor had little to do with obtaining the federal and state grants. Some of the money is allocated by law and other grant arrangements were made prior to his term.

Typically, he reached out and said in effect, "This is all mine; I did it." This street belonged to the taxpayers. Further, the arrangement was made during Mayor Davis's term; the truck was delivered after Partney became mayor.

"New sewage treatment plant. The city is saving $100,000. Not true." It was developed and construction started during Davis's tenure. Multiplier Avoided But Assessment

Uniformity Program Still Not Adopted

Tax assessors, collectors and payers are breathing a collective sigh of relief now that another 1.0 "multiplier" has been certified for Madison county by the Illinois Department of Revenue.

While this is a lot better than seeing taxes multiplied, it does nothing to alter present assessment inequities.

There are other favorable signs. Madison county appears ready to crack down on personal property delinquencies, and the state may make big changes in the present heavy reliance on real estate and personal property to finance governmental services.

But as long as there is any property taxation, the responsible officials ought to perfect and implement more impartial assessing methods.

Taxing cannot be fair unless assessed valuations are accurate and equitable. And the law now makes it relatively simple for counties to revamp their whole assessment base by making use of independent appraisers—at a modest cost quickly offset by gains in taxpayer satisfaction.

'Evil' Ice Cube Plot Disclosed to Consumers

Nobody has as much zeal as a convert, it is said.

Betty Furness, who once opened refrigerator doors in the era of live television commercials—the doors stuck only a few times—switched to the other side as LBJ's consumer affairs special advisor. Now, she assails promotion of products with missionary intensity.

Recalling her early career in testimony last week before a Senate subcommittee, she slammed the door on refrigerators as follows: "I used to sell those things. I didn't know that one cost more to run than the other. It costs more to operate a frost-free refrigerator than to defrost it yourself, and a good deal more to operate one with an ice-cube maker. You get the thrill of discovery when you get the bill."

Because we like easy access to lots of ice cubes, and because we don't enjoy the defrosting chore, she has failed to sell us that villainy is afoot. If it costs more, the extra service is probably well worth it.

We do not agree with her belief that buyers are in such danger of being cheated that a huge and costly new governmental apparatus should be created to protect them from their own buying judgments.

But after watching one of the sales pitches that she describes as offering "sex appeal, youth and blond hair in addition to the product," we'll admit that we share, along with other consumers, the disappointment that the girl pictured isn't a part of the package when we locate it at the store.

Lake Park, Airport Proposals Progressing

The news continues to be reassuring regarding two projects of immense impact on the Quad-City area—the new airport and the new Lake Park.

The House Conservation Committee has acted favorably on state acquisition of Horsewood Lake, a park and conservation area. And Governor Ogilvie has approved use of a state appropriation to study a major Madison St. Clair counties airport and has named John E. Robson, former U. S. Transportation Department aviation undersecretary, to direct the study.

Developments during 1969 on these two issues could favorably alter the local growth pattern throughout the final third of this century.

DeMolay Program Entering 2nd Half-Century

Election of Charles A. Meyer as an officer of the Egyptian Precinctory Legion of Honor is the high distinction, particularly in view of the DeMolay anniversary, observed locally in recent weeks by the James Stuart chapter and by all other chapters in the International Supreme Council. Successor to the late Mr. Stuart as advisor to the chapter of teenage boys, Meyer has devoted much time to DeMolay activities for a number of years.

A certain amount of good behavior is the result of knowing that the lady next door is a terrible gossip.

He overspent his expense allowance for the year and it was questioned by the council. To my knowledge, he has not to this day furnished us with an itemized list of what the excess expense was for. Why not?

Do we want to continue the refusal of one individual to cooperate with chosen ward representatives and have four more years of dissension and disruption at an untold cost?

Seven of the majority aldermen are not up for election this year. Of the incumbents up for reelection, a D's is undoubtedly being re-elected.

Mayor Partney has no inclinations to cooperate. As he says in his literature that he did everything, he has not shown proper respect for three aldermen who have been consistently supporting him.

"Some men grow under responsibility; others only swell." Let's bring back urgently needed harmony and cooperation to our city government. Let's all get our friends to vote April 1 of Clyde "Bus" Boyd for mayor.

ALDERMEN HELP SOLVE NEIGHBORHOOD PROBLEMS

To the Editor:

"Middle of the Dump (Behind the Mill)" March 17, I, too, am one of the "middle of the dump" residents. In my opinion, this is a politically motivated and prejudiced letter.

The party says they called and asked me to not go to the meeting. Why did they not go to the meeting? Why did they not call me to the meeting? Why did they not call me to the meeting?

As for children not being in school, this is a job for the parents, and not a city official. The letter writer gives the impression that all children roam the area and do not go to school. I have three boys who attend school regularly. I don't think the entire area because one of the children or her neighbor's children does not go to school.

The letter writer is so critical that it is beyond me why he cannot call me to the meeting. Why did they not call me to the meeting? Why did they not call me to the meeting?

Land Use Factors-Health, Safety, Property Values and Convenience

(Granite City Long-Range Plan)

Concluding group of the 11 community goals and objectives used in preparing the Granite City long range development plan.

To promote the highest and best use of land at the most appropriate location and in adjacent to the community.

A balanced use of land should be encouraged in and around the community that will promote the highest degree of health, safety, convenience, efficiency and general well-being. Livable areas, commercial and industrial areas, and the transportation network should be provided to make Granite City a more desirable place in which to live.

To improve and extend park and school facilities. Due to increased numbers of children and increasing demand for recreation, improvements to existing schools and parks should be made and new facilities should be constructed.

To achieve understanding and support of the planning program. This should be accomplished through a continuing process of citizen participation, through periodic reevaluation and updating of policies, plans and regulations, and through coordination with other public service agencies and other local units of government.

Next: Planning assumptions.

Sales Tax Increase: The Wrong Answer

Discussion grows among legislators and top government leaders that the answer to the State's present financial dilemma is a sales tax increase.

I strongly disagree. There is no question about the need for additional revenue. With 59,000 more young people in our high schools and grade schools this year—just to cite one example—the cost of state government is moving upward.

It is any comfort, this is happening in every state, whether the administration is Republican or Democratic. Every sensible economy obviously must be made. But the economies don't diminish the number of children in our schools, the cost of state government is moving upward.

Three taxes are already over-burdened: the personal property tax, the real estate tax and the sales tax. To burden any of these with state obligations can hardly fit anyone's concept of a just tax system.

I have just returned from a radio call-in show as I type this. One of those who called in was a widow who is trying to live on $44 a month and is being asked to pay her real estate taxes and personal property taxes. After paying that, a high percentage of what she has left obviously must go for food.

On top of that, there is serious talk about increasing the tax on food by at least 20%, from 5 cents to 6 cents—and perhaps more.

Even at the 5 cent level, Illinois has the highest tax on food of bread and a pound of hamburger of any state. Pennsylvania has a 6 cent sales tax but does not tax food. My belief is that the 6 cents sales tax is actually less oppressive than our 5 cent tax because Pennsylvania does not tax food, the essential for living.

When I first was elected to the legislature in 1954, the Illinois sales tax was 2 cents. It has climbed steadily—always without my vote.

What happens is that in each session a variety of taxes always are proposed. But one powerful group after another muzzles in opposition, and finally the other taxes are eliminated or reduced.

Unfortunately, those who are hurt most by a sales tax may not even know the legislature is meeting. Their needs are great, but their power is not great.

The lower your income, the higher the percentage your income is paid by a sales tax. The greater your income, the less you spend percent-wise on a sales tax.

The reason is that services are not covered by a sales tax, as commodities are. The person who makes $30,000 a year does not eat appreciably more than the person who makes $3,000 a year.

The sales tax in a very real sense is a "soak the poor" tax.

If you don't want one, you had better let the leaders of government know—soon.

Madison Bowling Club Foreclosure Suit Filed

A foreclosure suit on the Madison bowling alleys was filed last week for Joseph and Angeline C. Purdes against Mike Sasyk, Harry A. Briggs, Kelly Dutko and the Madison Bowling Club Inc. in Madison county circuit court in Edwardsville.

The complaint alleges that of an original indebtedness of $75,000, the defendants are in default in payment of principal of not less than $20,000 and interest of not less than $2000.

A contract to purchase the property was made on July 3, 1961, and the establishment was assigned to the Madison Bowling Club. The alleys were closed last fall after the start of a new bowling season.

The complaint also alleges that the defendants failed to maintain insurance on the premises against fire and extended coverage in the amount equal to or more than the principal sum secured by the mortgage, and the Purdes have advanced money for premiums to keep the premises insured.

The mortgage called for an annual interest of four per cent a year on the $75,000 purchase price.

According to the contract, the buyers were to pay monthly installments on the interest the first year, then $500 per month for five years, and then $700 per month beginning Aug. 1, 1967, until the balance was paid in full.

The Purdes couple seeks foreclosure, a personal deficiency decree and appointment of a receiver in event of a deficiency.

Dealers Blame U. S. for Lumber Shortage, Cost

"Lumber and building material dealers and their customers throughout the nation as well as in the Quad-City area are currently facing extremely critical shortages and spiraling prices of lumber products from manufacturers," Curtis Blevins, owner of the B & E Planning Mill & Supply Co., 13th and State streets, Madison, said today.

"Such price increases... ranging from 20% to 100% during the past year... are skyrocketing housing costs and endangering national housing goals and could seriously hamper efforts to provide adequate housing for low and moderate income families," he said.

"Unfortunately, the retail lumber and building material merchants have no control whatsoever over these current chaotic conditions.

"The problem has been created by a basic economic principle—supply and demand—and is primarily based in federal government-owned timberlands. Timber production for domestic use is simply insufficient to meet present and projected needs for lumber products."

Experts Soaring
Blevins said these factors have contributed to the situation:

1. Exporting of logs by manufacturers who purchase them from federally owned timberlands. Softwood log exports from two northwest states increased 30% above the same period last year. Many of these logs sold for $100 per thousand board feet or, in many cases, more than would have been paid for the lumber product that might have been manufactured from them.

2. The largest supplier of timber to manufacturers is the federal government, therefore, is the log price-setter and benefits more than anyone else in rising timber prices; 65% of the

GC Pianist Performs In Concert in Texas

Pianist Young Bang Cho, 15, a native of Korea and currently of Granite City, returned last night from Odessa, Tex., where she appeared as one of six soloists in a young people's concert by the Odessa-Midland Symphony Orchestra.

She was accompanied by her American "parents," Mr. and Mrs. Donald MacDonald, 1729 Primrose avenue.

Her appearance at the concert was part of the award the young pianist received in a recent national piano competition at Odessa where she was given top rating in the high school division.

She played the first movement of the Second Piano Concerto by Beethoven and was given a $500 check as part of her award.

A ninth grade student at Coolidge junior high school, she is a pupil of piano teacher Ruth Slenczynska at SIU-SW.

Of her playing, a music critic of the Odessa newspaper wrote: "Her relaxed style of playing showed grace, poise and magnificent strength and control for one so young."

nation's softwood saw-timber volume is on government-owned lands and 54% of this total is in national forests.

Nine million acres of western timberland have been withdrawn for "wilderness only" use and five million more acres are scheduled for possible withdrawal by 1974. Experts predict a gap of five billion between the current level of log production and the projected demand in 1972.

Weather Halts Logging
3. The extreme weather conditions of late December, January and February have meant that several weeks of production have been lost. While some logging is now resuming, the unusually deep snow will mean that months will be required to get back to some semblance of normal production.

Blevins said there is some hope for action that will alleviate the current crisis. On Feb. 4, a Joint Coordination Committee of the Housing and Forest Industries laid the groundwork for a cooperative program to ease the lumber and plywood cost and supply crisis.

The committee agreed that: 1. The Departments of Agriculture and Interior should initiate immediate programs to increase the annual timber harvest from federal lands in line with good management practices. This would bring about an increase of three billion board feet in timber cut as an emergency measure.

2. They would support a request for immediate expanded Congressional authorizations and appropriations to improve forest management policies and practices on federal timberlands.

"This committee's work has already begun to pay off," Blevins said.

"The Senate Banking and Currency committee has begun hearings on the problem, and President Nixon has also appointed a committee of his cabinet members to examine the situation.

"Meanwhile, we lumber and building material merchants are wondering when and where we will be able to purchase lumber products to meet the demands of our local communities at less than inflationary prices, as we are unjustly blamed and criticized for the current spiraling lumber costs."

Venice Opens Drive on Speeders on Broadway

A drive against speeders on Broadway has been launched by the Venice police department and is expected to be intensified soon through use of radar equipment. Chief of Police John Essington has announced.

Chief Essington reports the drive was ordered as the result of a substantial increase recently in the number of traffic accidents occurring on Broadway. He said statistics show 91 accidents have occurred on the thoroughfare within the past year.

In a discussion of the problem before the city council Friday night, Essington suggested use of radar equipment owned and operated by the city of Madison. Mayor John E. Lee said he believes Venice could rent the equipment from Madison for periodic checks of traffic.

Two Full Tickets, Independent in Chouteau Race

15 Candidates Seek 7 Posts In Chouteau

SUPERVISORS QUESTIONS

1. Do you favor reapportionment to provide equal county board representation on the basis of the one-man, one-vote court ruling?
2. Do you favor the use of voting machines rather than paper ballots?

Contest Clerks Office

Two complete party tickets and one independent candidate are seeking election to seven township offices open to election in the April 1 town election in Chouteau township.

All incumbent officials are running for re-election on the People's Labor Party ticket to fill the offices of supervisor, town clerk, assessor, collector and three auditor posts on the town board. They are opposed by a like number of candidates campaigning under the heading of the Township Improvement Party, while an independent candidate is seeking election to the town clerk post.

Walter C. Sparks, now serving as Chouteau township supervisor by appointment, is seeking election to a full four-year term as head of the People's Labor Party. Running with him are Town Clerk George Warnecke, also now serving by appointment; Assessor Otis R. Reeves, Collector Charles E. Lexow and Cletus Bedwell, Madison A. Sparks and James E. Greer, all incumbent town board members.

Duane Poag DeCota of South Roxana, head of the Township Improvement Party ticket as candidate for supervisor. Other candidates on that ticket are Francis J. Richardson for assessor, Morris W. Miles for collector, Stanley Lucas Jr. for clerk and Sherrin E. Greer, all incumbent town board members.

DeCota said: "I am seeking the position of supervisor so that I can work with other interested parties in putting an end to the financial waste and mismanagement of Township and County funds."

"These inexcusable situations are forcing an unjust financial burden on you, the taxpayers of Chouteau township. If elected, I will apply whatever talent and ability I may have to help make our township and our county a better place in which to live and earn a living."

His answer to the questions are:

1. "The U. S. Supreme Court recently decided that the 'One man-one vote' principle applies to a local governmental unit in Texas. I am of the opinion that the 'One man-one vote' principle will apply to local government units in Illinois. This action will be upheld by the Courts after a precedent set by the U. S. Supreme Court. This action, while not popular with inefficient local governments, will net the taxpayer a better value received for the tax dollar he is currently paying."

2. "The use of voting machines is a definite aid in tabulating large metropolitan area votes. In Chouteau township, while desirable, it would not justify the added tax burden to the voters."

New Area Directory Now Being Delivered

The 1969 Tri-Cities Directory is now being delivered to subscribers by R. L. Polk & Co.

The new directory lists names of adults, 18 and over, in Granite City, Madison, Mitchell and Venice, and business concerns.

Departments of the new directory are as follows, in order:

A story of Granite City, Madison and Venice, yellow (classified) pages, alphabetical list of names of residents, directory of householders and numerical telephone guide.

The yellow (classified) pages catalog 200 different kinds, or varieties, of enterprises from Abstracters to Wood Preservers.

Special features of the alphabetical list of names are the listing of the names of wives and the designation of the heads of households.

The householders, or green section, in addition to showing locations of streets and how lives or does business at each house number, denotes the homes that are owned by the occupants thereof, the homes that are rented, lists telephone numbers, and Zip Codes.

Numerical Telephone guide (blue section) is a list of the telephone subscribers arranged by numerical progression of telephone numbers.

The new city directory will represent the Tri-Cities to outsiders, when distributed to replace the 1968 edition in free reference directory Libraries maintained at Chambers and Commerce in other cities, the publishers pointed out.

This service is operated by the Association of North American Directory Publishers of which R. L. Polk is a member.

Junior Aaron and Cecil Zurlfluh are the first and last personal names appearing in the alphabetical name section of the new book.

Waste Treatment Projects in Area Approved by State

The Illinois Sanitary Water Board has approved $9 million in proposed waste water treatment projects in 23 counties, including three in Madison county, Clarence W. Klassen, technical secretary, reported Friday.

Klassen pointed out that all projects are improvements to present industrial and municipal treatment facilities and will bring waste handling in stronger compliance with water quality standards.

"Increased general taxes and service charges that must be levied to pay for these improvements will delay the constructions," the official noted. No state funds are involved in the projects.

Approval was granted to Melvin Pasheba and Kenneth Harbarger, operators of Sunny Shores Mobile Estates, Granite City, to install and operate an air-water oxidation system with effluent chlorination.

Also granted approval was a project by James C. Green, Construction Company, Inc., Granite City, to install and operate a sanitary sewer, contact stabilization package plans and necessary auxiliary equipment.

A total of 45 permits for constructing sewage and industrial treatment works has been approved so far this year.

Missions in Honduras Described by Ottwein

His experiences in Honduras as coordinator of various service projects, sponsored by the United Church of Christ, were described by Dr. Merrill Ottwein, an Edwardsville veterinarian, at Thursday's luncheon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club.

Thirty-nine members attended and welcomed Lewis Frazer of General Steel Industries, who joined the club and became the 100th member. Optimist President Fred Cunningham presided and the guest speaker was introduced by Robert Brave.

Relating that preaching missions have been established in the Central America Republic of Honduras since 1925 by the United Church of Christ, Dr. Ottwein noted in contrast that service missions to help upgrade and enhance family life in Honduras have existed in only the past several years.

He pointed out that it is difficult to teach religious values in a country so lacking in development, where almost 70% of its population is illiterate and more than 70% suffer from malnutrition.

Dr. Ottwein explained that the United Church of Christ service mission personnel demonstrate to Hondurans how to improve food supplies through better agricultural methods and concentrate on upgrading health services and improving sanitation.

He said that while there, he used his veterinary skills only when this specific service was required, with his primary responsibilities in the area of managing and coordinating all service missions of the United Church.

Dr. Ottwein is the Republican candidate for state senator. Other guests attending Thursday's meeting at the Rose Bowl restaurant were Oscar Ottwein, the guest speaker's father, and Thomas Bosley from Air Products and Chemical Corp.

Ross Randolph Urges Central Police Center

Ross Randolph, newly-named director of public safety, for East St. Louis, was substitute guest speaker Thursday at the quarterly dinner meeting of Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission.

Barney Metz, SIMAPC president, advised the 50 commissioners and guests present for the meeting at Sunset Hill Holiday Inn, that the original speaker, C. Bernard Carey, assistant director of Illinois State Department of Public Safety, was unable to be present because of a last-minute assignment from Gov. Ogilvie.

Randolph stressed the importance of crime prevention and the need for a computerized communications center to serve the Illinois Metropolitan Area. He added that criminals are wary of areas with organized law enforcement agencies and prefer to strike in areas where there are numerous police departments that know very little of what is going on in other municipalities.

"SIMAPC Has Start
People realize the streets are not safe and that something needs to be done. You have started on the way toward organizing the police departments here under the federal government's Omnibus Crime Control Bill, and the only way to meet with success is to plan for the future."

Among the special guests at the meeting were Madison County Circuit Judge Harold

Clark and District State Police Capt. Emil Toffant.

Theodore H. Mikesell, executive director of SIMAPC, announced the agency's application for federal funds for planning sewer and water pollution control systems in the counties of Madison, St. Clair and Monroe was about six months ahead of schedule and that notification should be received by July 1.

Copies of the agency's annual report were distributed, and Mikesell added that public announcements are to be made within the next few weeks on SIMAPC's solid refuse disposal study for the three-county area.

The financial report for 1968 for SIMAPC shows receipts and balances totaling $385,961 and disbursements of $336,948, including $266,303 for salaries, $75,464 for consultants, $13,537 for office furniture and auto, $11,251 for utilities, $742 for contractual services, and $4323 for travel.
